"So here we are on a bus with a bunch of soldiers from Fort Shafter and I am sitting alongside a old time sergeant. We left Fort Shafter at about 7:35 and we were on our way to Honolulu. But before that we had to stop at Hickam Field and that 's when the Japanese came in. While we were in this bus, the Japanese hit Pearl Harbor."

— from the book.

White Pearl, Red Sea is taken from the Memoirs of Sgt. Milton Verberg & LtCdr. Zenji Abe who were both at Pearl Harbor in 1941 and fifty years later in 1991. On Hickam Field, Sgt. Verberg sees LtCdr. Abe fly overhead and for 15 seconds, they were three hundred feet apart.

White Pearl, Red Sea is the untold dual story of the Attack on Pearl Harbor — and their story of WWII.
